Victims’ Rights & Resources

University of Arizona Police Department
1852 E First St
Tucson, AZ 85721
520-621-8273

Being a victim of a crime can be traumatic. You may feel isolated and confused, and not know where to turn for practical advice or support. This handout highlights resources available to assist you and explains your rights as a victim under Arizona law.

As a victim of a crime in Arizona, you have a right to be treated with fairness, respect, and dignity, and to be free from intimidation, harassment, or abuse through the criminal process. All state, county, and municipal justice agencies and courts are required to perform certain duties to ensure that you receive your rights.

To request a copy of the full text of Arizona victims’ rights laws, contact:

Arizona Attorney General, Office of Victim Services
866-742-4911
www.azag.gov/criminal/victim-services
If you have experienced domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking or other violent crime, you should:

- Immediately go somewhere safe and report the crime by calling 911.
- Preserve any evidence to aid in the investigation and prosecution.
  - Refrain from washing bathing, showering or douching, if possible.
  - Refrain from washing clothes or other items worn/used during the incident.
  - Do not delete text messages or emails.
- Seek medical care. An Arizona statute provides victims the ability to seek medical treatment for the collection of sexual assault evidence without charge to the victim. You do not need to aide in prosecution in order to seek medical treatment for the collection of sexual assault evidence. It is the victim who will decide if he/she wishes to pursue criminal charges.

Confidential Reporting

If a victim of a crime within the University's jurisdiction and does not want to pursue action within the criminal justice system or the University's conduct process, victims are still encouraged to report the incident to the Dean of Students Office for the purpose of making timely warnings to the campus community and for inclusion in the Annual Safety & Security Report.

Order of Protection

Victims may have the right to obtain an Order of Protection or Injunctions against harassment. The form required to obtain an order are available at www.tuczonaz.gov/files/courts/PO-General_Petition.pdf. Additional information on obtaining these orders is available at www.tuczonaz.gov. Victims may also contact the Dean of Students for assistance in obtaining these orders.

Interim Accommodations

Interim accommodations are short-term, remedial measures to ensure the safety of all individuals involved. These measures are decision about responsibility. These accommodations can include no contact orders, changes to on-campus housing, temporary emergency housing, changes to class or activity schedules, and changes of workspace. Accommodations can be enacted quickly, even before (or without) a complaint being filed. Interim accommodations provided to a victim will be confidential to the extent that such confidentiality will not impair the ability to provide the interim actions or protective measures. University employees contact the Office of Institutional Equity, (520) 621-9449 equity.arizona.edu/.

University student contact the Dean of Students Office, (520) 621-7057 deanofstudents.arizona.edu/.

University Disciplinary Action

The Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) and Dean of Students investigate all issues of discrimination, including harassment and retaliation, consistent with the Nondiscrimination and Anti-harassment Policy. These disciplinary procedures provide for a prompt, fair and impartial process. Information on the procedures for campus disciplinary action, including all forms of sex discrimination, including for an alleged domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking can be found at www.titleix.arizona.edu.
