This questionnaire and the information gathered will be used throughout any polygraph and background investigation process. Disclosures of a negative nature will not automatically preclude you from employment. An extensive background check will be conducted into your personal history. Your answers to the following questions will be verified by checks of records kept by police agencies, courts, and social service agencies, and by interviews with persons you have listed on your background packet. School records may be checked and employment will be verified. These answers may also be verified by a polygraph examination.

We recommend you keep copies of all documents submitted as part of this background.

It is mandatory that all 'yes' answers be accompanied by thorough, written explanations. Incomplete or non-existent explanations are not acceptable, nor is it acceptable to simply write 'will discuss in person' or similar.

If you deliberately give false or misleading information, or omit relevant information, you will be disqualified.

DIRECTIONS

1. Print a single-sided copy of the entire document, double-sided copies will not be accepted.
2. Police Officer and Police Officer Recruits must complete the Arizona Peace Officer Standards and Training Board Statement of Personal History and Application for Certification; Arizona Peace Officer Standards and Training Board (AZPOST) Form PH.
3. All applicants must complete the University of Arizona Police Department Applicant Questionnaire.
4. Review each answer carefully and ensure your answers can be easily read.
5. Answer each question completely. Do not omit any information. If it does not apply, write NA in the blank.
6. Use Clarification Form(s) available on the UAPD website, complete this form in blue ink only and in your own legible handwriting. Print as many copies as needed, to clarify any questions needing further explanation.
7. Police Officer and Police Recruits: you must complete the AZPOST packet.

Authorization for Release of Information for Participation in Consolidate Law Enforcement Applicant Reporting System (CLEARS)

The Arizona Peace Officer Standards and Training Board is creating a database for law enforcement agencies to collect and share information related to the qualifications of applicants who have entered into an agency selection process. This will involve sharing of information such as name, social security number, date of birth and sex of applicants. Information will be confidential and will only be shared with Arizona law enforcement agencies. The purpose of this system is to help agencies in conducting their background investigation. Participation in this database is voluntary and failure to authorize release for this purpose will not preclude you from consideration for employment with The University of Arizona Police Department.

For your information only

You will not receive and am not entitled to a copy of the report or to know its contents and further understand that the contents will be used in an evaluation process for employment with The University of Arizona Police Department. Further, no documents submitted by you will be returned and no copies of any other reports or documents utilized for or during my application for employment or a commission will be furnished or given to you. You will not be advised of the reasons for non-selection. The only exception to this is if employment is denied solely due to information obtained from N-DEx.

If employment is denied solely due to information obtained from N-DEx, you will have the opportunity to challenge the accuracy or completeness of those records, with the original agency of record. The University of Arizona Police Department will provide you with the contact information of the agency owning the information underlying the decision to deny employment. After receiving a written request from you challenging the accuracy or completeness of the record used to deny employment, the record owning agency shall then review the relevant information and advise you in writing whether it has confirmed the accuracy or completeness of the records or whether the records will be corrected. In the event you do not receive a response from the record-owning agency within 30 days from the date of your written request, you may contact the FBI at:

FBI CJIS Division N-DEx Unit
1000 Custer Hollow Dr.
Clarksburg, WV 26306

The FBI shall forward the challenge to the record-owning agency for verification or correction. The record-owning agency shall then review the relevant information and advise you in writing whether it has verified its records or where the records will be corrected.
